BUPERS INSTRUCTION 5530.2A

From: Chief of Naval Personnel

Subj: BUREAU OF NAVAL PERSONNEL PHYSICAL SECURITY PROGRAM

Ref: (a) OPNAVINST 5530.14C

1. Purpose. To establish policy, provide guidance, and set forth standards for security measures to safeguard Navy property and material. This instruction is a complete revision and should be read in its entirety.

2. Cancellation. BUPERSINST 5530.2.

3. Scope. Reference (a) addresses physical security and loss prevention responsibilities, and standards for safeguarding personnel, property, and material at Navy shore installations and activities.

4. Discussion. An effective physical security program must receive attention and direction from all Echelons within the chain of command. Properly trained and equipped personnel must carry out the physical security functions. Security postures must be accurately assessed and resources provided to execute effective measures.

5. Responsibilities. Security is the direct, immediate, legal and moral responsibility of all members of the naval service and civilians employed by the Department of the Navy.

a. Commanding officers bear responsibility for physical security and loss prevention within their commands/activities and for designating a physical security officer.

b. The physical security officer is responsible for planning, implementing, enforcing, and supervising the physical security and loss prevention programs of the command/activity.

c. Addressees are responsible for implementing this instruction within their commands/activities and subordinate activities per reference (a).

BUPERSINST 5530.2A
11 Jul 2000

6. Action. Addressees will evaluate the physical security and loss prevention programs for their commands/activities, and ensure compliance per reference (a). Provide the name of designated physical security officer to Bureau of Naval Personnel (PERS-014), 5720 Integrity Drive, Millington, TN 38055-0140 within 60 days of this instruction.
